Overview:

Under supervision, Instructional Student Assistants (ISAs) in this classification perform teaching, grading and/or tutoring duties for the majority of work hours in a given appointment in a given academic department or equivalent administrative unit over the course of an academic term. The work may be performed on-campus or at an off-campus public agency or private non-profit organization under an agreement with a campus in the CSU system. Students applying for ISA positions must be admitted or registered as a CSU student. Academic Student Employees may not concurrently hold a faculty or staff position. Students with assignments in more than one student classification (i.e., Teaching Associate, Graduate Assistant, and Student Assistant) are restricted to working a maximum of 20 hours per week during the academic year and up to full-time during academic break periods. The 20 hour per week maximum includes hours worked in all positions. See Classification Standards for more information: <http://www.humboldt.edu/aps/ase.html>.

Job Duties:

Read and score objective questions, short answer questions and essays on art history tests and total scores. The instructor will provide the reader with a detail key to the tests and instruct the reader on standards.

Minimum Qualifications for this Classification:

Knowledge and Abilities: Instructional Student Assistants must possess the ability to learn and perform assigned work; work cooperatively with faculty, staff, and other students; and accept responsibility. Completion of specific coursework may be required in order to teach, grade or tutor a course.

Special Qualifications: Admission or registration as an HSU student is required. On-Campus or Off-Campus Work-Study Instructional Student Assistants must meet the eligibility requirements of the Federal Work-Study Program, as determined by the campus' financial aid office.

Note: Exceptions to the minimum eligibility qualifications may be granted at the sole discretion of Humboldt State University.

Department Hiring Criteria:

The student should have taken the Art History course they will be grading for, or the equivalent at another institution, and earned an A. Special consideration will be given to students who have experience as an examination reader for art history classes and those students who have taken a broad range of related art history classes. Courses that may need a grader include: Art 103a, Survey of Art History I; Art 103b, Survey of Art History II; Art 104B, Ancient Art; Art 104C, Medieval Art; Art 104F, Renaissance Art; Art 104G, Baroque Art; Art 104I, 20th Century Art; Art 104J, Art in the United States; Art 104K, Intro. to Tribal Art; Art 301, Topics in Western Art History; Art 302, Topics in Global Art History; Art 303, Global Contemporary Art; Art 304, Topics in American Art; Art 301M, Topics in Western Art History Depth Experience; Art 302M, Topics in Global Art History Depth Experience; Art 303M, Global Contemporary Art Depth Experience; and Art 304M, Topics in American Art Depth Experience.

Procedures for Notification:

Applicants will be notified by phone or email.

A background check must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position that is designated as sensitive under CSU guidelines. The background check will include, at a minimum, a criminal records check. Certain positions may also require a credit check, motor vehicle report, and/or fingerprinting through Live Scan service. Adverse findings from a background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU student workers who apply for the position. All CSU employees are obligated to respond to and report incidents of sexual harassment and sexual violence. The successful candidate for this position will be mandated to receive relevant training on an annual basis. The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.
