

HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY

Vacancy Announcement
Faculty Tenure-Track Position Starting August 2022
Department of Critical Race, Gender and Sexuality Studies
JOB # 2223-08

Humboldt State University is a Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI) that strives to foster an equitable and inclusive community that supports our students of diverse backgrounds. HSU is committed to achieving the goals of equal opportunity and endeavors to employ faculty and staff of the highest quality committed to working in a multicultural and multiracial community that reflects the diversity of the state.

DESCRIPTION: Humboldt State University's Department of Critical Race, Gender & Sexuality Studies (CRGS) invites applications for an academic year tenure-track faculty position in Comparative Ethnic Studies, with emphasis in Asian American Studies.

As an institution, HSU is committed to eliminating the equity gap in all student populations with dynamic, student-centered practices and policies that fully engage the campus community. The ideal candidate will share HSU's commitment to helping its racially and socioeconomically diverse students succeed in their degree and career objectives.

We value the ability to serve students from a broad range of cultural heritages, socioeconomic backgrounds, genders, ability and orientations. Therefore, we prioritize applicants who demonstrate they understand the benefits diversity brings to a professional educational community. The successful candidate will be an equity-minded individual committed to collaborating with faculty, classified staff, administration, and students who are also committed to closing equity gaps.

RANK, SALARY AND BENEFITS: We seek to fill this position at the Assistant Professor rank; however, rank and salary are dependent on the appointee's qualifications and experience. The current California State University Salary Schedule is available at: <http://www.humboldt.edu/aps/docs/salary/Salary-Schedule.pdf>

Humboldt State University provides an excellent benefits package for faculty. Information about benefits plans can be found at: <http://www.humboldt.edu/forms/node/934>.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: A Ph.D. or equivalent in Ethnic Studies or related field from an accredited college or university is required at the time of appointment. ABD will be considered. If ABD, degree requirements must be completed by August 2022.

The successful candidate must demonstrate the following:

- ✓ Broadly trained in Ethnic Studies, and places an analysis of the intersections of race, sexuality, class, gender, ability, and nationality at the center of their scholarship and teaching;
- ✓ Required expertise in Asian American Studies;
- ✓ Commitment to research that actively engages Asian American communities;
- ✓ Experience and/or commitment to promoting and fostering a learning environment that is supportive of individuals from diverse backgrounds;
- ✓ Record of, or potential for, involving students in research and scholarly activity;
- ✓ Teaching experience or potential for excellence in teaching using a variety of methodologies; and
- ✓ Commitment to contribute to the department's mission to dismantle white supremacist capitalist heteropatriarchy.

Preferred qualifications for this position include:

- ✓ One or more of the following specializations: Diaspora Studies, Postcolonial/Decolonial Studies, Cultural Studies, Queer of Color Critique, Multicultural Queer Studies, Feminist Studies, American Studies, Social Movements, and/or Critical Environmental Justice;
- ✓ A strong interest in program and curricular development, and a commitment to undergraduate teaching and advising.
- ✓ Commitment to mentor and advise historically marginalized students and students of color;
- ✓ Willingness to participate in the development of online learning experiences;
- ✓ Willingness to promote and foster collaboration across programs; and
- ✓ Willingness to engage in grant writing activities.

At the time of appointment, the successful candidate, if not a U.S. citizen, must have authorization from the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services to work in the United States. For information on the University policy on support for non-immigrant probationary faculty visa acquisition, please visit the Faculty Immigration Resources page: <https://extended.humboldt.edu/international-programs/immigration/faculty>.

Evidence of degree(s) is required at time of hire.

PROFESSIONAL DUTIES: Candidates should be committed to teaching excellence and to building a strong research record. Instructional assignments may include: Introduction to Ethnic Studies; Asian American Studies; Asian Diaspora and Globalization; Multi-Ethnic Resistance; Race, Gender & U.S. Law, Theory and Methods, Decolonizing Gender and Sexuality, and Campus Dialogue on Race. Instructional assignments will be consistent with the programmatic needs of the department and students.

The primary professional responsibilities of instructional faculty members are: teaching; research, scholarship, and creative activity; and service to the University, profession and to the community. These responsibilities include: advising students, participation in campus and system-wide communities, maintaining office hours, working collaboratively and productively with colleagues, and participation in traditional academic functions. Probationary faculty are typically provided ongoing mentorship to be a successful member of the faculty. During the first two years of the probationary period, teaching responsibilities will be reduced by approximately one course each semester. The reduced teaching load supports the establishment of research, scholarship and/or creative activities required for retention, tenure, and promotion.

Humboldt State also continues to build unique and innovative learning opportunities for students, bridging the sciences, social sciences, arts and humanities. HSU is a leader in "learning communities" that build relationships between students, faculty, staff, administrators, and the community. These communities incorporate environmental and social responsibility.

GENERAL INFORMATION: The Department of Critical Race, Gender & Sexuality Studies (CRGS) brings together scholars, teachers, and learners from Ethnic Studies, Women's Studies, and Multicultural Queer Studies. We aim to create a just and sustainable world by analyzing systems of inequality and strategies for resistance. CRGS offers a major and three minors. For more information, please visit: <https://crgs.humboldt.edu/>

Humboldt State University sits on the traditional homelands of the Wiyot people in what is currently called Arcata, CA. The Wiyot people call the area Goudi'ni (over in the woods). The Humboldt State University campus in Northern California is in close proximity to several thriving Native American tribes and communities. Humboldt State currently has the largest percentage of Native American students in the CSU system and has over 30 Native American faculty and staff many from local area California Indian tribes. HSU is home to a number of leading Native American programs including the Indian Tribal Education and Personnel Program (ITEPP) and the Indian Natural Resource, Science and Engineering Program (INRSEP). There are also many opportunities at HSU to conduct research, teaching and community work on Native American history and cultures in Special Collections at the HSU library. The Humboldt Room in the Library has fantastic resources for tribally focused archive materials from the region. HSU strives to build a supportive and inclusive Native community and engages with Native communities through various initiatives and opportunities like the annual California Indian Big Time and Indigenous People's Week and a chance to network with other faculty and staff as part of the HSU Council of American Indian Faculty and Staff.
