Job Title: TRIO-SSS Advisor

Wage: Starting pay is based on level of experience:
Level 1A $20.27 per hour; Level 1B $21.90; Level II $24.83

Hours: Full-Time (40 hours per week), Non-Exempt, 12-month position with a competitive benefits package including group health, dental, and vision. A 403B retirement contribution is added after one year of service with 1,000 hours in that year.

Duration: This is a temporary appointment with an anticipated start date of October 1, 2022. The position is renewed at the beginning of each grant year, contingent on continued funding and positive work performance. The SSS grant is funded on a 5-year cycle, with subsequent years dependent on re-authorization of funding by the Department of Education. The SSS program at HSU has been in continuous operation since the inception of the program in 1972. The 2022-23 academic year is the third year in the 5-year cycle.

Project Name: TRiO Student Support Services 2020-25 F3188

Supervisor: Dan Saveliff, Director of EOP/Student Support Services

Position summary: Under the general supervision of the Director of the Student Support Services Program (SSS), the incumbent is responsible for a variety of work assignments and duties and works with minimal supervision to carry out work without specific daily assignments. Position responsibilities include counseling and advising nontraditional students (low income, first generation, ethnic minority and other students with special needs) who are eligible for SSS, assessing the need for academic support services, providing direct service to students in individual and group settings, and monitoring the progress of an assigned caseload of students. The incumbent works closely with faculty and other university offices in order to accomplish program goals.

Essential job functions: Utilizes basic counseling techniques to provide advisement to students who need financial, career, academic and personal counseling services. Assists students in choosing, pursuing or adjusting to suitable educational and vocational goals. Provides detailed information on academic policies and regulations, general education requirements, graduation requirements, and academic support services. Assesses eligibility of entering students for program services and provides information on eligibility requirements.

Assesses and adapts services or programs to the needs of academically and culturally diverse students. Interprets and applies state and federal program regulations in providing appropriate services.

Provides advising to an assigned caseload of program students:

Provides academic advising, designed to assist students who may be academically underprepared to meet general education and/or major requirements. Assists with major selection, registration, course scheduling, academic progress requirements; provides information on university regulations, procedures, and deadline dates. Interprets and utilizes university, CSU and national admissions and placement test scores and academic records in the advising process and in helping students alleviate skill deficiencies; provides follow-up with students on academic probation and those not meeting academic progress requirements.

Provides personal, academic, career, and financial aid advising to an assigned caseload of approximately 150 to 200 students.

Provides housing assistance, information on cultural and social activities, health and legal referrals, and referrals to other campus and community departments and agencies.

Provides orientation for new students and gives information on program regulations and services and general information about the university and community in addition to the services detailed above.

Maintains complete and accurate records on students served and specific services or referrals provided and reports this information as needed. Maintains records on student academic progress and persistence and conducts regular needs assessment of all assigned students.

Acts as an advocate for non-traditional students where typical guidelines and solutions are not available or are not adequate.

Programming Support
